

For Immediate Release

From: HAB Bank, New York

Date: September 9, 2017

HAB BANK IS NOT AFFILIATED WITH HABIB BANK LIMITED (HBL)

In light of recent news regarding HBL, HAB Bank, strongly affirms it has no direct, indirect or any affiliation whatsoever or shared ownership with Habib Bank Limited, a Pakistan-based financial institution with an office in Manhattan.

HAB Bank is a U.S.-based community bank headquartered in Manhattan with FDIC membership. HAB Bank has no operations outside the US. The institution has operated continuously and successfully since its original incorporation in 1983 and has branches in NY, NJ and CA.

“HAB Bank proudly serves our consumer and commercial banking customers in the New York Tri-state area and California for over three decades,” says Saleem Iqbal, President and CEO of HAB Bank.

HAB BANK was incorporated in 1983 as a New York State Chartered Bank. HAB is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), and holds $1.3 billion in assets as of June 30, 2017. Headquartered in New York, the Bank and besides Manhattan maintains branches in, Jackson Heights, Richmond Hill, Hicksville in NY, Iselin in NJ, Artesia and Downtown Los Angeles in CA. HAB also has an International Banking Facility (IBF) that provides correspondent services to international banks. HAB specializes in Financial Institution Services, International Trade Finance, Asset Based Lending, Commercial and Residential Mortgages and Consumer Banking Services. HAB’s family of Consumer Banking Products includes HAB eBanking, Remote Deposit Capture, Debit Card, Visa Credit Card & 24-hour Telephone Banking. As it celebrates over three decades of operations, HAB continues to focus on providing value to its corporate, consumer and correspondent banking customers.

For further information, please visit our website at: www.habbank.com